THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"Faith grows from the barrel of a gun."

ANOTHER VICTORY!

Loyalist Forces of the Emperor dealt yet another defeat to the renegade so-called "Space Marines" in a pitched battle in the city of CENSORED. Guard Losses were quite light, and only a few Valiant Guard Troopers were called to the bosom of the Emperor. Imperial Cognitors calculate the "Space Marines" suffered an estimated 175% losses. Once again our Brave Lads proudly fly the Aquila Standard over the ramparts of CENSORED.

Defend the Walls!

VICTORY OVER ORKS NOW EVEN GREATER!

The Emperor's Blessing has just learned that our Wise & Revered Emperor-General CENSORED, after smashing the pathetic Ork herd last week at the Fortress of CENSORED has, in a stroke of Emperor Inspired Genius, has ordered the XXIII Army to withdraw from the ravaged battlefield, thus over-extending the Xenos animal rabble even further! High Command expects the pathetic greenskin mob will disintegrate in a matter of weeks.

Chief Commissar CENSORED issues Words of Courage & Praise to the XIV Artillery Battery of Guard Regiment CENSORED after the doughty gunners singlehandedly defeated a feeble Ork armoured attack in close combat.

Duuuuuh!

EAGER AGRI-WORKERS OFFER MOUNTS

Loyal farmers have banded together to supply the Heroic Rough Riders with fresh mounts. "Leave me with at least one!" proudly quipped one farmer as Requisition Troopers led his entire herd of draft animals away.
